8 Convenient Locations around Western New York

Watson's Candies, Inc. was started close to 75 years ago in 1946 when brothers Louis and John Watson, and their wives Ellen & Mary made chocolates in the back of room of their soda fountain and luncheonette. In 1987, Lou and Ellen's son Jim took over control of the family business and added new retail locations and a production facility. Expanding yet again, in 1993, Jim's daughter joined the business and expanded the business to 8 stores as well as developing business partnerships with local favorites like Anderson's Frozen Custard. Watson's uses only the highest quality ingredients.

Ask Jim Watson...

Q: Can chocolates be shipped throughout the year?

A: Chocolates are best shipped under moderate temperatures. When we ship to warmer climates we take precautions to use coolers, ice packs, or next-day shipping services.

Q: Food Allergy Statement?

A: Our chocolates are manufactured in a facility that also processes peanuts, tree nuts, eggs, wheat, soy, coconut and dairy products.

Q: Should chocolate be refrigerated?

A: Chocolate is best served between 68 and 70 degrees.

Chocolate Fun Facts: International Chocolate Day is September 13th. Chocolate comes from the cacao bean which is grown on a cacao tree, an evergreen from the Malvaceae family (other members of the family include okra and cotton), there by making chocolate a vegetable. The Aztecs at one time used cacao as currency.
