

"I love being part of an amazing school district, serving the community and the region."

Lorry is in her 12th year on the Amherst Central School Board, serving also as a member of the district's Audit and Transportation committees. Lorry is excited to serve as ECASB President this year, having previously served as Vice President and a member of the Delegate Assembly, Awards committee, and Audit committee. She has also chaired the ad hoc committee to revise the ECASB By-Laws and Policies.

A Human Resources Consultant since 2008, Lorry is self-employed, having started her own consulting practice in 2019. She works in various HR capacities with clients who have small- to medium-sized businesses. She will assess the HR department, create structure and systems for efficiency, ensure compliance with federal and state employment laws, create and revise employee handbooks, and conduct training.

Lorry is a graduate of the University at Buffalo with a BS in Management, Human Resources and Marketing, and a BA in Psychology. Additionally, she holds two human resource certifications - Professional in HR (PHR) and SHRM Certified Professional (SHRM-CP). She is a member of the local Buffalo Niagara Human Resource Association and the national Society for Human Resource Management.

Lorry has been the recipient of several ECASB and NYSSBA participation Awards and various PTA awards, including the Apple Award (2011), NYS Honorary Life Membership (2013) and the Distinguished Service Award (2018).

Lorry is an active volunteer at the Tiger's Den Food Pantry, a successful collaboration between the school district and a local church which was a past recipient of the ECASB Hodgson Russ LLP Collaboration Award. The Tiger's Den provides food to over 70 families each month within the Amherst Central School District boundaries.

Lorry is a native of Western New York and has been a resident of Amherst since 2003. She is married to Matthew and they have two children: a daughter Riley, who graduated from Amherst in 2022 and is in her last year in the Nursing program at Niagara University, and a son Declan, who graduated from Amherst in 2025 and is in his first year at Penn State University.
