

Erie County Association of School Boards

“ ECASB BUSINESS CONNECTIONS ”

LONG TIME SPONSOR OF ECASB...

Chris G. Trapp, Esq. and Josephine Greco, Esq have both been designated as a Winner of “Legal Elite” in Western New York.

Greco Trapp, PLLC offers a full spectrum of legal services with an emphasis on employment practices including all forms of employment litigation and discrimination claims, the representation of municipal corporations including school districts, villages, and towns, general and personal injury litigation, social security disability as well as the general practice of law. Greco Trapp, PLLC’s roots in the Western New York legal community are deep. After a long and distinguished history in Western New York, Offermann, Cassano, Greco, Slisz & Adams, LLP dissolved on December 11, 2009, and Managing Partner Josephine A. Greco launched Josephine A. Greco & Associates, PLLC. The name changed to Greco Trapp, PLLC on January 1, 2011 to reflect the membership of Chris G. Trapp, another experienced Buffalo attorney, who joined the firm in April, 2010 after a thirty year practice. At Greco Trapp, PLLC their attorneys provide personal attention to each case, which is the key to ultimate success. The firm prides itself on providing superior service to our clients in the most efficient and effective manner possible while always remembering our ethical obligations to their clients and the community.

Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a future outcome.

Chris G. Trapp graduated from the University at Buffalo Law School. He has been licensed for the past 38 years and specializes in education law representing school districts in WNY. Chris has served as the Village of Alden’s attorney since 1992 and was the Deputy Village Attorney for the village the prior ten years. In April 2021, he was appointed Attorney for the Village of East Aurora, and in January 2022, he was appointed to the position of Attorney for the Town of West Seneca. Chris has extensive experience with municipal law, and public and private labor relations, for over thirty-five years. He is on the Executive Committee of the Local & State Government Law Section of the NYSBA and the Committee Coordinator for that Section. Chris is also the current Chair of the Municipal Counsel Committee, co-Chair of the Liability & Insurance Committee, and former Co-Chair of the Employment Relations Committee.

Josephine A. Greco graduated from the University @ Buffalo Law School and took the New York State Bar Exam in 1982. She had been selected as Super Lawyer for 2011 - 2020. This accomplishment is a peer designated award that is only awarded to a select number of accomplished attorneys in the state. She focuses on employment and labor, employee and social security, disability and general litigation law. Josephine serves on the Dean’s Advisory Council for the University of Buffalo. Josephine has also been designated as a winner of Legal Elite in WNY as well as receiving a 2019 C-Level Executive Award from Buffalo Business First.

Greco Trapp PLLC represents School Districts, Municipal Corporations as well as individuals and organizations in areas of municipal law, education law, employment litigation, labor relations, discrimination and general litigation, to name a few areas of the practice.

Greco Trapp, PLLC is a full – service law firm dedicated to providing thorough and responsive service to all of their clients.

“Being a smaller firm, helps Greco Trapp limit the cost to clients and allows them to provide for personalized service”. Greco Trapp PLLC was featured in Buffalo Business First Bizjournals June 15, 2015.

Joseph Greco Trapp presented at the 2021 NYSBA Local & State Government Law Section Fall program on Open Data and how that can be used by municipal government. He is the CEO of Third Estate Analytics, Inc. which was accepted into CivStart, the nation’s premier govtech accelerator.

14 Lafayette Square
Suite 1700
Buffalo, New York 14203
Phone: (716) 856-5800