Dr. Darren Brown-Hall is the Superintendent of the largest suburban district in Erie County. Prior to moving to the Williamsville CSD, Dr. Brown-Hall focused on overseeing the day-to-day operations of the second largest district in the state right behind New York City. While employed for the Buffalo City School district he improved student academic results, closing achievement gaps, and assisting senior staff in many efforts to support student's career and college readiness program. Dr. Brown-Hall is active with CIDEL (Committee for Identifying and Developing Educational Leaders), serves on the Board for the WNYESDC, and is on the Board of Directors for Compass House and for Gay, Lesbian Youth Services (GLYHS)
