Monica's background is in the area of law practice. She was raised by a single mother who instilled the value of hard work and integrity. She was the first in her family to earn a college degree. In addition, she worked her way through college and Law School. Monica graduated from SUNY Binghamton with honors and received her J.D., cum laude from SUNY Buffalo Law School.

Assemblywoman Wallace resides in the town of Lancaster with her husband John and their two children Jack and Claire.

In the Lancaster community, she served as a board member for the Lancaster YMCA.

Her experience in the legal community involved working as a Law Clerk in federal court to help ensure justice was served and laws were applied equally to all parties.

She has served as a director for the Western New York Chapter of Women's Bar Association of the State of New York at both the Local and State Level, and has volunteered her time and shared her knowledge with her involvement with the Legal Writing Institute For Outreach Committee.

Assemblywoman Wallace's priorities include restoring integrity to government, supporting working families, creating local jobs and supporting local development in the Buffalo and Western New York communities as well as strengthening education in Western New York.
