GORDON W. JONES ASSOCIATES
ARCHITECTS, P.C.

For over 50 years, Gordon W. Jones Associates has developed their reputation in School Architecture by providing both personalized and highly professional services. Guided by the values of honesty and integrity, they have demonstrated the ability to complete successful public school capital projects in over 40 separate Western New York School Districts. The construction value of successfully complete projects now exceeds one billion dollars.

In order to provide consistency and quality of their work, the firm limits the number of active clients to an average of fifteen. This allows for maintaining experienced professionals at all levels and results in the consistent production of projects that are on time and under budget. Given the continuous financial challenges faced by your district, this is a key value to consider when selecting your firm.

Working exclusively in the Western New York K-12 public school sector, their knowledge of state regulations, maximization of building aid, and application of the newest technologies, will bring value to your projects.

Whether planning for consolidation, reconstructing existing facilities, or adding on to your schools, Gordon W. Jones Associates looks forward to providing you with the best available services and enjoyment of the process. Let our team be your team.

Scott Jones, AIA - President

Scott joined Gordon W. Jones Architects after graduating from Carnegie Mellon University. Under the guidance of his father, Gordon Jones, Scott became owner of the company in 1997. The founding Principals of honesty, quality, and personal relationships continues to represent the company's mission.

Mike W. Noga,

AIA, LEED GA - Vice President

Mike has been with the firm for over twenty years and has completed projects in numerous school districts throughout Western New York. He continues to excel in project planning and is highly regarded for project innovation and public presentations.
