Role and Function of the ECASB Legislative Committee

Erie County Association of School Boards

Legislative Team 2024-2025 Guidelines

Purpose:

Develop ECASB's Legislative Priorities and platform for the current school year.
Review state and federal legislation affecting Public Education and the ECASB member districts.
Advocate for public education and the ECASB member districts with local, state, and federal elected officials.

Activities:

Establish a schedule to meet with Legislators both at their Albany/Washington D.C. offices as well as at their local offices.
Host a Legislative Breakfast or Round Table with elected officials and district representatives.
Collaborate with other organizations on issues related to public education.
Review and discuss NYSSBA's and NSBA's Resolutions.

Other activities may include:

Develop letter writing campaigns / petitions for issues related to ECASB member districts.
Develop advocacy alerts for ECASB Members and provide talking points for contacting elected officials.
Develop media awareness through the use of our web page, Facebook, Twitter, and other accounts to engage and inform our membership.
Host an advocacy training to teach Board Members how to advocate with elected officials.
Participate in state and federal lobby days for public education.
Possibly attend political rallies and fundraisers.
Attend workshops to learn about the political landscape of the federal government and state government and the impact of legislation on public education.
Attend round table discussions.

Membership:

One school board member from each member district and one alternate.

Meetings:

At least six times during the Association's fiscal year.
ECASB Legislative Co-Chairs, ECASB Program Services Manager and ECASB Executive Director lead team meetings.

Additional:

If for any reason the designated representative is unable to attend, please notify your alternate and encourage them to attend. If neither of you can attend, have your board select another member of your board to take your place and then call the ECASB office to let us know who will be representing your district.

The final portion of the meeting is an open forum designed to share what is happening legislatively within your district, or issues that may need to be addressed by the legislative committee. Please be mindful of the time.

Advocacy Activities

Suggested NYS Advocacy Activities

Education advocacy can be most effective if it meshes with legislative sessions.

Month	Albany Activity	District & Member Activities
January February March	State budget is finalized: Governor's State-of-the-State Message convenes Legislature early January Executive budget is due 1 st Thursday after session opens (Feb. 1 in inaugural years) Legislature Education Committees react to the Governor's budget proposal Legislature and Governor approve budget (by April 1 each year)	Meet with legislators: - in their local offices on Fridays - during NYSSBA's Capital Conference Invite them to your school Write/email (using organized campaigns): Letters with local data on current bills Resolutions on key legislation/decision
April May June	Legislature resolved regulatory issues. Regents compare their proposal to enacted legislation and begin developing their plan, often holding hearings for input.	Meet with legislators in local offices Let legislators know repercussions to your district of recent legislation Plan in-school events for legislators and regents
July August September	Legislature is usually in recess. Agencies submit requests to the Division of Budget. Regents and Commissioner hold budget discussions. SED staff develops concrete proposals. By September 30, agency budgets are moving through DOB, and the Executive Office has begun development of a budget proposal.	Meet locally with legislators and regents. Invite legislators and regents to fall events: Provide tours of programs and opportunities to meet students, staff, community, and board Take photos to share with media and officials Involve officials in educational program Hold Q & A community reception with officials Invite officials to breakfast with the board
October November December	Legislature is usually in recess. The Executive staff and DOB begin negotiations to develop a budget that tries to meet agency needs and Governor's priorities using projected revenues. Regents approve their State Aid proposal for consideration by the Legislature.	Help develop ECASB legislative positions by identifying issues at board meetings and helping a sub-committee write a position. Meet with other districts and shared legislators to discuss issues of mutual interest. Attend the Albany Update to hear about what is happening at the state level.

Year-round		Make legislation a regular board discussion item Disseminate information on bills to community leaders and the media Include a legislative update in the district publications Include legislators on your district's mailing list Follow Bill Track 50 or NYS assembly and NYS Senate websites for pending and current legislative actions Write to legislators using your ECASB post cards (YES/NO/THANK YOU) to share your thoughts

Advocacy Suggestions

Before meeting with legislators:

Know your topic (s).

- ◆ Focus on four or fewer items each year to concentrate your efforts.
- ◆ Keep updated on specific pending legislation and its effects on your district (Bill Track 50).
- ◆ Assume the legislator knows little or nothing about your topic.
- ◆ Be prepared to state specifically what your district is doing to reduce costs.
- ◆ Know the current status of bills (number, sponsor) you will discuss with the legislator.
- ◆ Know the viewpoints of the opposition; refute them and/or defend your position.
- ◆ Know and use the NYSSBA principles for state aid.
- ◆ Contact MAJORITY members and leaders of both houses.

Know your Legislator.

- ◆ Know the legislator's positions, opinions, and accomplishments.
- ◆ Understand that the legislator must advocate for ALL constituents to be re-elected.
- ◆ Seek ways to make your issues fit the legislator's agenda.

Prepare your remarks.

- ◆ Use bill content to introduce a topic, have the bill number available.
- ◆ Refer to programs or bills by name, do not use acronyms.
- ◆ State why your issue should be a priority; develop specific supportive data.
- ◆ Be concise.
- ◆ Identify an action item to request of the legislator.
- ◆ Mail your position ahead of the meeting; develop handouts for the meeting.
- ◆ Designate one or more speakers (for all topics to be covered during the meeting).

During meetings with legislators:

- ◆ Introduce all members of the group to the legislator and ensure they all get a chance to speak.
- ◆ Thank the legislator for past support (or for spending time with you if nothing else).
- ◆ Relax; the legislator is an elected official like you. Be assertive but not confrontational. Cover all desired topics, returning the discussion to your topic as needed. Do not insult or criticize. State availability for follow up conversations.
- ◆ When meeting with state officials, discuss the effects of state aid on your district, noting the relationship between state aid and local property taxation rates.

After/between meetings with legislators:

- ♦ Send a follow-up letter that recaps important points and thank them again. Feel free to use ECASB's "thank you" post-cards to do so.
- ♦ Be tenacious. Try again and again, courteously- some efforts take years to resolve. Contact legislative staff members for assistance. Contact frequently- visits, letters, phone calls.
- ♦ Help legislators reach larger numbers of potential voters. Provide public exposure for legislators and give them public accolades for their support. As an individual, work for and support the re-election of legislators who have supported your district.

Important Bullet Points to Remember

The following notes will help you be successful in advocating for your district as you advocate for public education, the students, and the constituents you serve.

- ◆ Call in advance
- ◆ Consider inviting like-minded individuals that represent other constituents
- ◆ Be open to meeting with key staff members and building connections
- ◆ Phone calls can be appropriate when necessary (i.e. support or oppose a bill or before a public hearing)
- ◆ Emails can be effective as well
- ◆ Keep email messages short and to one screen
- ◆ Provide complete contact information
- ◆ Become familiar with online submission forms
- ◆ Letters can be formal or informal, typed or handwritten
- ◆ At the federal level, letters may be screened for security purposes
- ◆ A longer response time will generally occur in response to a letter
- ◆ Always identify yourself and who you are representing
- ◆ Be brief and concise as possible
- ◆ Be informative and share a personal story related to the district
- ◆ Be factual. If you don't know the facts, admit you don't have the data on that at this point in time.
- ◆ Be courteous and polite
- ◆ Be reasonable
- ◆ Be appreciative, follow up with a thank you

Don't:

- ◆ Don't do all the talking. Let them talk and listen carefully.
- ◆ Don't provide inaccurate information. If you do not have information, follow up and get them information.
- ◆ Don't refer to them by their first name.
- ◆ Don't bring your personal politics in the door.
- ◆ Don't be rude or argumentative. Don't raise your voice.
- ◆ Don't be afraid to share a personal story or a story that is relative to you particular district to get your point across.

Writing to Legislators

Guidelines for Written Communications

Be concise.	Recipients won't read lengthy documents. Deal with only one issue per communication.
Be timely.	Write only about important issues, early enough to affect the recipient's thinking.
Be specific, reasonable, logical.	Provide facts. Refer to any legislation by sponsor name and number. State specific effects of pending legislation on your district. Support arguments with data. Ensure that any data are accurate. Check spelling, grammar, and punctuation.
Be polite.	Do not lecture, insult, or attempt to intimidate. Say thank you for past support. Be sure to spell the recipient's name correctly. Use the correct form of address, as shown below. Refer to any personal association, such as previous work on the official's campaign.
Be user friendly.	Identify your topic between the inside address and greeting in a line that states: RE: Bill #xxx, sponsor name, title. First state the issue (including relevant legislation), your position, and request support. E.g.: I'm writing to see your support for A999: Education Act of 1999. Please let me know how you intend to vote on this essential piece of legislation. Include your address on the letter, using business or organization letterhead if appro-
Be natural.	Use your own language. Hand write only if your handwriting is legible.
Be aware.	Avoid faxing. Many legislative offices find faxes offensive. Identical letters in large numbers can have a negative effect. Write to officials other than those who represent your district. Building relationships with legislative staff members who know the issues can

Glossary of Legislative Terms

Aging	Time a bill must wait before it's eligible to action (three consecutive legislative days unless shortened by a message of necessity or a special report).
Appropriation	Money allocated by legislation including budget bills for specific use by various governmental departments.
Bill	Specific legislation proposal, introduced but not yet enacted into law.
Bill drafting	The process starts when someone decides current law needs revision. A bill is drafted, which is essentially a list of changes to the existing compiled state statutes and code that may add, strike, or amend the text to confer new purpose, restrictions, etc.
Bill memorandum	Descriptive statement accompanying each bill as it's introduced.
Budget bill	Suggested allocation of funds for particular purposes introduced annually by the Executive Office.
Calendar	Daily list of bills, resolutions, and items for consideration by the body.
Calendar day	Day during which the Legislature is in session, seated, and considering bills- a work day as opposed to a "legislative" day.
Carryover	Legislation held active from one annual session to the next
Caucus	Closed meeting of members of a body belonging to one political party, to decide leadership and policy, and usually binding on those who remain in attendance.
Committees	In most states, committees do the bulk of the legislative debate and modification. They are specialized by area of oversight or expertise and will discuss and research the bill, potentially amending or substituting a new draft. The committee typically recommends to the Committee of the Whole, another way of saying the entire chamber, that the bill either Pass or Do Not Pass.
Conference	Weekly meeting by majority and minority members to discuss proposals.
Concurrent (joint)	Resolution requiring action by both legislative houses
Deficiency budget	Amendment to budget allocation funds for unanticipated expenditures incurred from the start of the fiscal year to the start of the calendar year.
Executive budget	Document of budgets for governmental purposes, local assistance, judiciary, legislature, debt, capital construction for the next fiscal year as introduced by the Executive Office.
Home rule request	Request from a municipality to the legislature, required by the NYS Constitution to pass laws affecting municipal property, affairs, or government
Introduction	The bill is introduced into the first chamber. This often entails the chamber Clerk and registering the official introductory draft of the legislation.
Journal	Official record of proceedings (not a verbatim transcript) of each house.
Law (statute)	Bill passed by the legislature and signed by the executive or re-passed by the legislative body over the executive's veto; OR in NYS a bill the governor doesn't sign or veto within 10 days after receiving it during a legislative session.
Legislative day	Day on which the NYS Legislature meets; whole body might not be present, but is labeled as meeting for procedural purposes dealing with the aging of bills.
Majority	More than half of the voting members; usually refers to all elected members but for some purposes might refer only to those present and voting.

Message of necessity	Message from the Governor stating the need for an immediate vote on a bill, thus allowing the Legislature to shorten the 3-day aging period
Override	Re-passage, by a 2/3 vote of both houses, of a bill vetoed by the executive.
Passage Vote for Engrossment	After a bill has been 'read' a third time, it is put to vote for passage out of the originating house. If the vote passes, the bill is then considered to be Engrossed and it is sent to the other chamber of the legislative body.
Passage Vote for Enrollment	Once the bill gets to third reading there is another vote for passage. Should it pass then the bill normally will be considered Enrolled. This version of the bill text is what will be sent to the Governor and will be codified by the Secretary of State as part of the official Chapter and Acts.
Quorum	Majority of the members elected to the house; number who must be present before the body may begin its daily session.
Readings	Measures that alert members (through the daily calendar) to active bills; the NYS Constitution requires three readings on any bill before voting on it.
Read First/ Read Second	The definition of "read" varies however rare is the instance that the bill is read verbatim on the chamber floor. At this stage a synopsis of the legislation is presented and any initial discussion or decisions on the merit of the bill may be decided and then the bill is typically referred to one or more committees to continue the life process of the bill.
Recall from Governor	Motion enabling either house to recommit a bill to committee that has passed both houses but has not been acted upon by the Governor.
Referendum	Measure passed by the Legislature that must also be approved by the electorate in a popular vote.
Report of committee	Presentation of a bill or resolution from a committee to the daily calendar for consideration by the house as a whole.
Rinse and Repeat	After the passage vote for engrossment, the process then repeats itself from introduction to Third reading in the second legislative chamber.
Roll call	Vote on an issue: FAST roll call- for noncontroversial bills, only the alphabetically first and last members and the leaders are called SLOW roll call- for controversial bills, individual votes are recorded.
Sent to Governor	In states where Governor approval is required, the Enrolled bill is sent to the Governor. This may be ceremonial, or the Governor may have the power to veto the bill, or if left unsigned for a fixed period of time is de facto approved.
Session	Entire working period of the legislative body, including all meetings between convening and final adjournment.
Special session	Legislative session convened by either the Governor or NYS Legislature house to consider only specifically identified issues.
Sponsor	Introducer; member who authors or helps to author a piece of legislation
Standing committee	Permanent committee provided for in rules of the house to consider and recommend bills assigned to it concerning a particular subject.
Starring	Placing a star on a bill; a motion that halts final action on a bill until one day after the star is removed by the sponsor or majority leader.

Stopping the clock	Stopping the hands of the official house clock; used to assure passage of legislation by a statutory or constitutional deadline.
Supplemental budget	Amendment to budget adjusting existing allocations and creating new ones; usually the last consideration of a legislative session.
Uni-bill	Bill co-sponsored by members in both houses.
Veto	Failure by the executive to enact a bill into law by returning it to the legislative body within 10 days unsigned with a veto message or not signing it within 30 days after legislative adjournment (pocket veto).

How a Bill Becomes a Law

In a legislative house, a member proposes an idea; the Bill Drafting Commission writes it in legislative language; the Bill is introduced, dated, numbered, and printed.

Bill moves to relevant Standing Committee for study, discussion, and possible hearings or amendments. If approved by one committee, it may move to other committees to repeat the process if deemed appropriate.

If approved by committee, the bill is listed on the Calendar of Bills for three separate meetings of all members to consider, debate, amend, and vote.

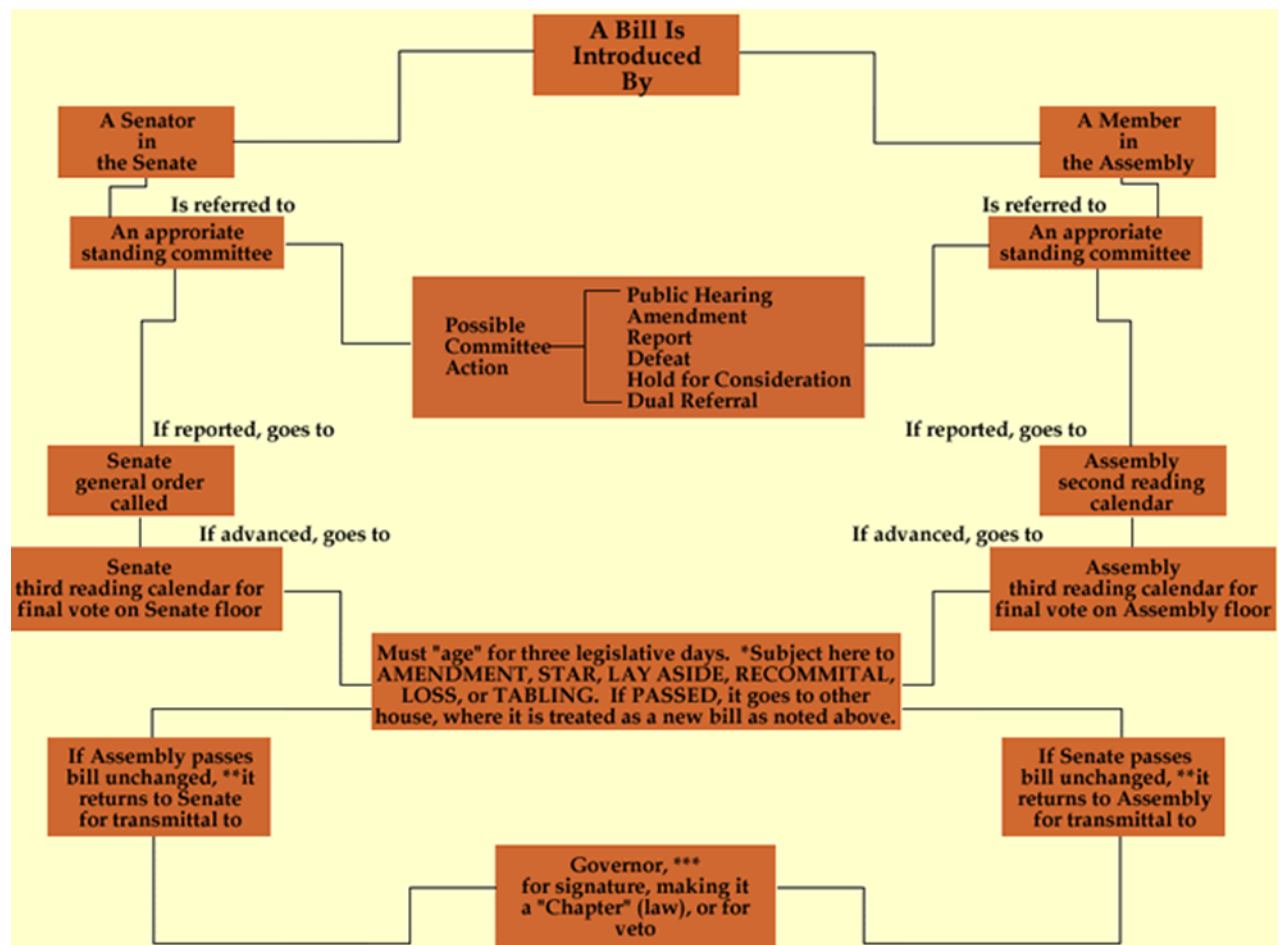

If passed in one house, the bill goes to the other house to repeat the legislative process. If amended, the bill must be re-passed by the original house as amended.

If passed by both houses, the bill is sent to the Executive for signature or veto. The bill may be returned to, or recalled by, the legislative body.
