Guesses are submitted to Sue Summers at ssummers@e1b.org by the end of each day.

Correct answers will put your name on the NICE list and into the final drawing.

The more times your name appears on the NICE list the more entries you will receive in the final drawing.

Dates of the Elf On A Shelf will be December 2nd - First Clue; - December 13th - Last Clue. The clues will be sent out Monday - Friday.

The first name drawn will receive a nice prize.

A second name drawn will receive a $100 Macy's Gift Card.

A third name drawn will receive a $50 Barnes and Noble gift card.

Clue Day 7:

Halls adorned with black and gold,
A story of pride and purpose unfolds.

At JFK High, the future takes flight,
Guiding young minds with knowledge and light.
Woodrow Wilson's laughter rings clear,
And at Roosevelt, young hearts persevere.
Two new playgrounds, a vision in bloom,
Where joy and growth dispel the gloom.

The Board, with wisdom, passion, and care,
Won a dinner with flair beyond compare.
Their teamwork shines, their bond runs deep,
A legacy of service they'll always keep.

Restorative Practices is a program they hold very dear,
A community bound by love and cheer.
For here in this district, a story is told,
Of the mighty Bears in black and gold

What district did E.C. Asby visit last evening?
