- 6:00 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. - Franklin Covey with Renee Ailing: “World Leader Helping Organizations” The world is changing at an unprecedented pace. Every day school leaders are making countless decisions and facing problems they’ve never encountered before. FranklinCovey is the world leader in helping organizations achieve results that require lasting changes in human behavior. Boards of Education and Superintendents will discover solutions that navigate from community concerns to elevating student voice and achievement. This session will provide attendees with insights from the confluences of the 7 Habits of Highly Effective Leaders, the Four Essential Roles of Leadership and the 4 Disciplines of Execution for Educators in order to support school board members and superintendents to (1) Build team amongst their Board of Trustees, (2) Inspire trust with their communities and (3) Execute strategy on their Wildly Important Goals of student success.
- 6:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. - appel osborne: - “Landscape Architecture - The Role it Plays in Your Capital Project” Architects from the firm will discuss how landscape architecture can add to and become an integral part of the capital project. Appel osborne currently works with the following ECASB member districts (Amherst, Cleveland Hill, Depew, East Aurora, Eden, Erie 1 BOCES, Grand Island, Lackawanna, Lakeshore, Lancaster, Maryvale, Sweet Home and West Seneca).
- 7:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m. - Jacinta Garcia, Lake Shore CSD: “Supporting Indigenous Students in the Public School System” The session will focus on the steps districts can take to connect with indigenous students, their families, and their nations, and create a more inclusive environment within the public schools systems.
- 7:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. - New York State Leadership Group with Bob Christmann - “In a Superintendent Search Process, What do School Leaders Look For in a Board of Education?” “Candidates study the board of education before deciding to apply for a superintendent vacancy. What board qualities are most important to them and how would your board measure up to their priorities? Board members should be aware of what characteristics are being considered even if there is no current search.
